

TRACES OF THE TRADE

A STORY FROM THE DEEP NORTH

All are invited
to a film viewing
Sun., Dec. 15

in the Parish Hall
after 10:30 service

In this feature documentary, filmmaker Katrina Browne discovers that her New England ancestors were the largest slave-trading family in U.S. history. From 1769 to 1820, DeWolf fathers, sons and grandsons trafficked in human beings. They sailed their ships from Bristol, Rhode Island to West Africa with rum to trade for African men, women and children. The film follows Browne and nine fellow family members on a remarkable journey which brings them face-to-face with the history and legacy of New England's hidden enterprise.

A light repast will accompany this important 90 minute film by the author of the Sacred Ground program. This film is open to everyone, regardless of whether you are interested in the Sacred Ground small group discussion series planned for winter/spring 2025.

This is the day that the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 188:24

This year Family Formation's focus will be GIVING GOD THANKS AND PRAISE. Each time we gather together we'll sing—accompanied by handchimes—this hymn from Psalm 188. Come help us praise God!
