

SACRED GROUND Gatherings kick off on Sat., January 18 8:30 AM

Watching the film, Traces of the Trade, was an introduction to SACRED GROUND, the Episcopal Church's dialogue series committed to racial healing, reconciliation and justice. The six session series will have its first gathering on Sat., Jan. 18 at 8:30 AM with coffee, pastries & fruit. Video clips and book excerpts are used to walk participants through chapters of America's history of race and racism, focusing on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories. Each session will be offered at least twice, offering multiple opportunities for participants. Please sign up on sheet in the narthex to indicate both your INTEREST in participating as well as to help determine best TIMES for our gatherings. It is anticipated that we will meet every 2-3 weeks to allow time to prepare for each session.
